

Christelle VOS

GENERAL MANAGER & AUCTIONEER

contact@nyc-premium-auctions.com

I lead operations and manage high-profile sales with precision, confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility. Throughout my career, I have developed the ability to oversee complex processes while maintaining attention to detail and upholding the highest professional standards. My expertise allows me to ensure seamless events, coordinate teams effectively, and deliver consistent results within the highly competitive international auction market. I approach every project with strategic focus, clear communication, and a commitment to excellence, ensuring both operational efficiency and outstanding client outcomes.

EDUCATION

Master of Laws (LL.M.)

University of Belgium

2019 – 2021

- Advanced specialization in legal theory, international frameworks, and regulatory systems.
- Developed strong analytical, research, and legal drafting skills.
- Focused on complex legal structures, strategic interpretation, and cross-border legal matters.
- Strengthened critical thinking and high-level problem-solving abilities within demanding academic environments.

Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.)

University of Belgium

2016 – 2019

- Comprehensive foundation in civil law, commercial law, constitutional law, and legal methodology.
- Built expertise in legal research, case analysis, and structured argumentation.
- Developed disciplined analytical thinking and a results-oriented academic approach.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Galerie Moderne

Galerie Moderne – Auction House

Secretary

2021 – 2022

- Provided administrative and organizational support within a fast-paced auction house environment.
- Managed correspondence, scheduling, and client communications (buyers, sellers, and collectors).
- Assisted in coordinating auction previews, catalog preparation, and internal operations.
- Maintained documentation related to consignments and ensured smooth daily workflow.

Assistant (Operations & Auction Support)

2022 – 2023

- Supported auction house management in sales coordination and client relations.
- Assisted in organizing auctions, including logistics, artwork handling, and event preparation.
- Managed documentation related to artwork consignments, transactions, and inventory control.
- Contributed to improving operational efficiency and internal processes within the auction structure.

NYC Premium Auctions

General Manager & Auctioneer

2023 – Present

- Lead operations and manage high-profile sales with precision, confidence, and a strong sense of responsibility.
- Oversee complex auction processes while maintaining meticulous attention to detail and upholding the highest professional standards.
- Ensure seamless event execution by coordinating multidisciplinary teams and managing logistics in the competitive international auction market.
- Drive strategic planning and operational efficiency to deliver consistent, measurable results.
- Conduct auctions with professionalism and authority, fostering client trust and maximizing sales outcomes.
- Maintain clear communication with collectors, investors, and stakeholders to secure outstanding client experiences and long-term relationships.